Passover 2020

Worship Song- He's the Son of the Most High

He's the Son of the Most High

He's the One who came to die

And now He is lifted high

He's the Son of the Most High

Chorus

His name is Jesus, Emmanuel

He is the Prince of Peace

Who came down to dwell

His name is Jesus, Messiah

The Anointed One

He died here upon a tree

He has rescued you and me

He has paid sins penalty

When He died upon a tree

He'll judge the living and the dead

As the Righteous ruling King

He will judge in Righteousness

He'll judge the living and the dead (over after chorus)

We'll be with Him when He comes
He will dwell in His place
We will meet Him in the clouds
We'll be with Him when He comes

*And before the feast of the Passover, Yeshua knowing that His hour had come that He should move from this world to the Father, loving His own in the world, He loved them to the end.
John 13:1*

Worship Song- At The Cross of Jesus

At the cross of Jesus
His hands bleed from the nails
At the cross of Jesus
Thorns have pierced His brow
At the cross of Jesus
A spear's thrust through His side

Chorus

It took a loving Saviour
To lay down His life
It took a loving Saviour
To take sin to the cross
It took a loving Saviour
To redeem His Own
It took a loving Saviour
To bear our sin alone

(over)

At the tomb of Jesus
Crucified, He's lying there
At the tomb of Jesus
A stone holds tight the door
At the tomb of Jesus
He rose for evermore

At His Throne of mercy
Jesus is seated there
At His Throne of mercy
He prays for us there
At His Throne of mercy
His time to come draws near

Then the crowd which was with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, witnessed. Because of this the crowd met him, because it had heard of the miracles He had done. John 12:17,18

Then the Feast of Unleavened Bread, being called Passover drew near. Luke 22:1

And He said to them, I have greatly desired that I eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I will not eat of it again until when it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of Yahweh!

Worship Song- If We Could See His Nail Scarred Hands

Chorus

If we could see His nail scarred hands

If we could see His bleeding side

And the humiliation, with thieves on both sides

This was not the death of kings or princes

For He was mocked, He was scourged and crucified

He came to earth as the Saviour
He died and He rose
He came to earth as the Saviour
His life laid down in triumph o'er His foes
He came to earth as the Saviour
Sin and death, the curse brought to a close

He'll not come back as the Saviour
But as righteous Judge
He'll not come back as the Saviour
I know the King, I'm covered by His blood
He'll not come back as the Saviour
When He comes, His eyes ablaze like fire

So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Exodus 12:17

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

Reader2

Renewed Covenant Meaning

Leaven causes bread to puff up and be full- sin causes men to be prideful, puff up and be full of themselves. Unleavened bread is flat bread that contains no leavening agent and symbolises the absence of sin.

Worship Song- Out of Egypt

Out of Egypt Israel came
Delivered from slavery at the Fathers command
Set free to worship the Great "I AM"
Out of Egypt Israel came

Freed from bondage sin and shame
Delivered from slavery by the Passover Lamb
Set free to worship the Living Word
Freed from bondage sin and shame

To the earth Yeshua came to Heal broken hearts and set the captive free
To comfort all who mourn, and give sight to the blind
To the earth Yeshua came

Telling of the Passover Story

Pharaoh the King of Egypt, made a law that every boy baby of the Hebrew race should be killed, and there was great sorrow because of it.

But when Moses was born, his mother managed to hide him for three months; then she made a cradle, or little ark, and putting him into it, carried him down to a river and hid the cradle among the reeds there.

Soon after this, Pharaoh's daughter came with her maidens to the river-side, and when she saw the beautiful child, she sent one of her maidens to bring it to her.

She took the little boy to the palace and named him Moses, and he became a great man among the Egyptians; he knew, however, that he belonged to the Hebrew race, and when he saw how badly his own people were being treated he tried to help them; but at last he was obliged to leave Egypt. He became a shepherd, taking care of the flocks of a Priest called Jethro. He also married Jethro's daughter.

After a time, Yahweh God spoke to Moses out of a burning bush, and told him that he must go and rescue his people from the cruel Egyptians. Moses thought he could not do this; but Yahweh promised to help him, and to show him what he would be able to do with His help.

Yahweh turned the rod which Moses carried into a serpent. Then Yahweh told Moses to pick the serpent up by the tail, and as he did so it became a rod again. He showed him another sign also; but Moses was still afraid because he could not talk well and thought that Pharaoh would not listen to him. So Yahweh told him to take his brother Aaron as a spokesman.

Reader2:-

Moses and Aaron, therefore, went into Egypt where they called together the chief men among their own people, the Hebrews, or the Israelites, and told them what Yahweh had commanded. Moses also did the miracle that Yahweh has given him power to do. The people believed that Yah had sent him.

After this Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him that it was the Lord Gods command that he should let the Israelites go. Pharaoh knew nothing about Yahweh and became very angry, saying that Moses and Aaron kept the people from their work by telling them such things; and he treated the Israelites worse than before.

But Moses had faith in Yahweh so he was able to perform before the King the wonderful things that he had done before his own people. Pharaoh still would not let the people of Israel go.

Then Moses turned the waters of the rivers to blood; and after that he caused large numbers of frogs to run over the land and the houses, doing great harm. He also brought locusts and other insects to be a pest to the people and caused many of the useful animals which belonged to the Egyptians to get sick and die. He did all these wonders with the rod which Yahweh had given him. But pharaoh would not listen to him.

Then Yahweh commanded Moses again, and he brought other plagues upon the Egyptians; Pharaoh still would not give in. Altogether Yahweh brought ten plagues upon Egypt.

At last however Yahweh sent them still more terrible trouble; for the first born of every Egyptian family, and even the first born among the flocks, died; although the Israelites who had put blood on their door post so the death angel would pass over, were spared, as they had been throughout all the plagues.

Death of the First Born

Then Pharaoh was frightened into obeying Yah, and let the Israelites go; so they started at once for the land of Canaan, and the Lord God guided them during the day by a cloud, and at night by a Pillar of fire.

When the Israelites reached the Red Sea, they found that Pharaoh was pursuing them with a large army. But Yahweh commanded Moses to stretch forth his rod over the sea; he did so, and the waters parted, making a high wall on either side, so that the children of Israel passed through and reached the other side in safety.

When the children of Israel saw that they were safe, they sang a beautiful song of praise to Yahweh, and then they went on their way again. Yahweh kept them by sending plenty of quail, and also a substance they could use for bread called manna, or what is it).

Later when they wanted water Yahweh commanded Moses, and he struck the rock with his rod, and water poured out of it, so that the thirsty people and their animals had enough to drink.

In this way Yahweh took care of the Israelites as they journeyed through the desert which was a strange country to them toward the Promised Land. Moses became the law-giver to the Israelites, receiving the Torah Commands from Yahweh God.

Worship Song- There'll Be a Day

There'll be a day when He will come
All will be changed by His rule and reign
There'll be a day when He is here

The risen dead and the living souls

There'll be a day they'll worship Him

There will be joy that's forevermore
There'll be a day when we will see
The glorious Light of His Presence
