

At The Cross of Jesus

At the cross of Jesus

His hands bleed from the nails

At the cross of Jesus

Thorns have pierced His brow

At the cross of Jesus

A spear's thrust through His side

Chorus

It took a loving Saviour

To lay down His life

It took a loving Saviour

To take sin to the cross

It took a loving Saviour

To redeem His Own

It took a loving Saviour

To bear our sin alone

At the tomb of Jesus

Crucified, He's lying there

At the tomb of Jesus

A stone holds tight the door

At the tomb of Jesus

He rose for evermore

At His Throne of mercy

Jesus is seated there

At His throne of mercy

He prays for us there

At His throne of mercy

His time to come draws near
